TRAINING

CONFLICT MANAGEMENT & COMMUNICATION

OUR PROGRAM

Optimize your daily managerial practice :

- Demonstrate leadership while maintaining credibility and relational exemplarity
- Trigger engagement: praise, recognize, value
- Maintain commitment over time: anticipate and reduce possible sources of dissatisfaction
- Develop cohesion and team spirit
- Evaluate the level of autonomy of each of your employees and adapt their support
- Identify professional and relational skills and promote the emergence of talents
- Identify areas for improvement and solutions to be implemented

The keys to communication to avoid getting into conflict

- Identify the beginnings of the conflict, the stages of its evolution, the possible choices to avoid escalation
- Communicate upstream, listen, accept different opinions but by controlling your emotions and without losing sight of your objective
- Explaining your choices based on unquestionable objective criteria
- Promote "production" and the team: quality of service, involvement, respect of deadlines, understanding of customer needs (internal or external)....
- Understand the operating methods of each employee to better communicate, involve and facilitate the success of the team.

Communication at the service of the development of team spirit

- Communicate clearly/effectively, explain the choices, the collective objective and the importance of each person's role in achieving the objectives
- Anticipate the conflict situations that will follow and plan possible negotiations
- Consider different points of view through authentic listening
- Encourage employees to bring their vision and their solutions centered on the collective objective
