LANGUAGE CLASSROOM*

OUR PROGRAM

Focus on oral expression while remaining faithful to the structure of the tale:

- Will be offered: games and fun exercises as triggers for spontaneous stories and improvisation.
- Creation of more structured narratives and reflection on grammatical and lexical points: past tenses / comparison / description (relative ones)

Explore some popular tales:

- Reading of different versions of the same tale.
- The same tale around the world
- Recurring themes.
- Notion of point of view (ex: Little Red Riding Hood told by the wolf ...)
- Fairytale characters and their doubles in myths.

Create a tale and tell it:

- Spontaneity and improvisation
- Writing a story while respecting constraints.
- Mental image (show)
- Speech, rhythm and phonetics.

EVALUATION

The student will be assessed through a scenario, calling on the vocabulary and concepts mentioned in the course. A skills assessment sheet is given to each trainee allowing them to assess their skills. If the training is validated, a skills certificate will be given at the end of the course.

At the end of the training, each student receives:

- A support covering the main theoretical concepts discussed.
- The end-of-session evaluation sheet, attesting to the student's level.
